Overview of Some Career Counseling Services

We are pleased that you are considering R. C. Consulting, Inc. services for your career counseling needs. We look forward to the successful attainment of your goals as we guide you through this important process of career planning. We look forward to working with you. Your services will be delivered by Romona Camarata, M.S. Ed., Adm. GCDF, CCC, President, R. C. Consulting, Inc. This Service Agreement outlines our company’s policies. If you have any reservations or questions, you are welcome to discuss them with your Career Consultant.

Provision of Services

The number of sessions needed varies with each client’s needs, as well as the services that are being provided. I will describe the various services offered during the initial consultation, determine your needs, and –in collaboration with you – discuss and/or recommend the most appropriate services for your objectives. If assessment instruments will be used, we will inform you of the purpose of the chosen assessment instrument(s), prior to administration of the assessment instrument(s). Following administration, your Consultant will provide you with an interpretation of the results, as well as sufficient information to facilitate your understanding of any conclusions and recommendations made. Below you will find an ala carte selection-this will make your campaign personalized:
